

25 Bill Fitch, Listen to Learn, Canada. "Of the 4 senior Listen to Learn staff we want to bring to Canada in September, only one has an approved visa. Two have been denied but have submitted a second application, and the 4th has just submitted. They're all qualified; they'll all return. Pray that the Canadian working in the Nairobi embassy will recognize that."

SUN Ann Chow. August is a sprint toward the International Justice Mission conference of Sept. 28-Oct. 5. Ann is asked to do more operational planning, so good decisions and time management are key.

Dave and Susan Jeffery training future Bible translators to unreached language groups.

27 Katie Fuller & Chez, Mission Hub. Pray for students as they leave for and return from short term trips. Our most recent returnees have stories from the Middle East, South America and East Asia. Pray for Chez and Katie as they debrief students and encourage those leaving.

28 Gus and Marliese Ketola, London. We are helping an Iranian couple learn English. Please pray for blessing in our relationship and our teaching efforts.

29 Wayne & Helen Hancock, 3-Fold Ministries, Nicaragua. Praise God that in the past 3 months during unrest and violent suppression of peaceful protests, the staff has been safe. No visitors, local or foreign, have visited. Pray for Mauricio as he faces challenges giving support, comfort and hope to families.

30 David and Angela Morris. Pray for our friend's war-torn country. A major Sunni invasion is continuing, destroying that port and city. Pray for our friend as more people will connect with him,, many with heightened spiritual interest.

31 Remember the decisions made and seeds planted in the young lives of kids that attended summer camps this summer. Many will drift far from the valuable teaching if they are not upheld faithfully.

August 2018

Knox World Mission

1 Carluci & Christina Dos Santos, LAM, Canada. Pray that at the conference in the Andean region in July, God's Word was planted in hearts and that students return to fruitful ministries in their home countries. Carluci is to teach an 8-week course in OT history and theology at the Spanish Bible Institute for IMF Toronto, in the fall.

2 Donna Dong, InterVarsity Christian Fellowship, Canada. Pray for InterVarsity Pioneer Camp summer sessions, that children and teens will know the love that God has for them and respond to Jesus' invitation to personal relationship. Pray for Donna's July vacation, that she gets good rest and has ample time for reading and developing Biblical talks for August and Sept.

3 Luke & Yuko Elliot, OMF, Aomori Christian Centre, Japan. The Teen Bible Camp is Aug. 2-4. Pray for Haruki, the only Christian among 3 brothers who have helped in past. Pray Haruki will be moved by the Spirit through this camp to confess with his mouth that "Jesus is Lord" and believe in his heart.

4 Dave & R. Pray for a Yeshu Satsangh ("Truth-gathering" about Jesus), an outreach to be held in the Bhagwan home on Aug. 4. Pray also for the TV program (outreach to Hindus) in Guyana.

SUN Xerggyo & Hil. Pray for our student visas when we return to T. Remember the time we have to report with supporters and friends in Canada and Mexico. Pray for our health and continue to pray for Xerggyo's complete back recovery

6 Jacob & Natasha Chandler, MoveIn, Toronto. Pray for Jacob and colleagues as they are in a season of developing and planning upcoming projects and events for the year. Also pray their upcoming staff retreat would be a significant time of unity and hearing from God.

7 Geri Rodman, IVCF, Canada. Pray for the campers who are attending IV camps. May campers come to know Jesus for the first time and pray for staff and student meetings in preparation for New Student outreach starting at all 55 campuses across Canada. Geri will begin to share with Nigel Pollock, the new Inter-Varsity President. May they have a good transition on Sept. 1.

8 Sylvia Dresser, retired from TEAM, Papua. Nine third-level students at the Merauke Bible School in Papua are doing a three-month practicum at their home villages. Pray that they will be effective in their teaching and develop renewed vision for their future ministry.

9 C & K. C speaks at an international gathering of over 300 field workers on a number of business-as-mission related topics. Pray for anointing and good connections. Also, the team is extremely busy with potential investments in China, Mongolia, Indonesia, Nepal, the South India ocean, and the Arabian Gulf region.

10 Paul & Mary Beth McLean, PCC, Taiwan. On Aug. 13-17 Paul will help lead another translator's training workshop for 8 teams working with the Bible Society in Taiwan and the PCT. May God bless teachers and students in all the training sessions.

11 Norine Love, FFM, Toronto. Today is a special day for the FFM Board. They will have a day-long retreat to pray and share about future directions, new initiatives for FFM to tackle. May this be a time of deep dependence on, and waiting for, God's guiding hand.

SUN Rosemary Walker, AIM, Korea. She thanks God for students from Syria & Lebanon, etc. who came for help with French and English and accepted Bibles. Now she is heading to Korea for a term. Aug 16 Rosemary flies from Montreal to Vancouver and on to Seoul on Aug 28.

13 Bill & Sheila McKelvie, Interserve, Newfoundland. They are thankful for an apartment and that Bill is enjoying his work in St. John's. Pray for Sheila as she discusses future roles with Interserve this month.

14 Ruth Thomson, LAM, Brazil. Pray as she prepares background for going back to Kayapo areas, with a Brazilian who also works with the Kayapo, to work on New Testament revision, check Psalms and perhaps some OT translation. Pray "son" David gets his student visa soon.

15 Jack & Mary Anne Voelkel. Aug. 16-19 they will visit Mary Anne's brother, Bob, who is facing a recurrence of throat cancer, with no further treatment. Pray God will open his heart to Jesus. Sept. 2 Jack will give a lesson at their church on "Lessons through Affliction."

16 Barbara Rahn, OMF, Cambridge/Thailand, helps prepare the monthly OMF prayer sheet, and volunteers at the Cambridge Memorial Hospital weekly.

17 Elizabeth Matthias, Mission to the World, Germany. As many counselees are on vacation she'll study for the DMin—again. Wisdom, insight, concentration and quiet are needed. Her pastor and family are still going through a very difficult time.

18 Laurie Armstrong, Power to Change. Pray for staff/students doing final preparations for reaching incoming students. Pray for interns leaving for East Asia and for "Desert Rain" mid-Aug (1-2 year commitments).

SUN David & Susan Jeffery, CanIL, BC. Translation work is moving ahead in several languages spoken in the West Asian country where they first worked. Pray for A, a national colleague who is in the final stages of becoming a translation consultant; that his expertise will add to the momentum of scripture completions to reach these communities.

20 Leah Hopp, OPC, Uganda. Pray she will be able to set realistic goals for her community health open team, as part of her preparation to return to Uganda in October.

21 Mary Jane Fandrich, Lebanon. Pray for wisdom in planning the timing of her return to Lebanon. Pray also for open hearts so the children can receive the memory verses she teaches them. Pray for In'am, her faithful teacher-colleague who so eagerly drills (!) the children on their verses.

22 Phase 2: Glenn & Fern Byerly, David Evans, Clarence & Cathy McMullen, Elaine Esser, Gladys Linthicum, Eleanor Crabtree, Patsy McCarthy, Beth Huddleston, Marg Roth, Pam Stedman, Mrs. Pru Owen and Jim Mason.

23 Dominique Goold, IVCF, Uoft Scarborough Campus. Please pray for Dom and her students as they seek to find a community house that matches the needs of their parents' wishes. Ask that the Lord would fight for us in what seems impossible. Exodus 14:14.

24 John & Deborah Bowen, Hamilton. John continues to teach and preach, write and mentor. Deborah also continues to teach part time.
